

NO WAR NEAR SAYS GEN. CLAY

U.S. Governor In Berlin Sees No Reason To Believe War Near

Says Concessions To Soviet By U. S. In Berlin Ended

Complete Change In American Policy Seen In Col. Howley's Statements

APPEASEMENT IS FUTILE POLICY (BULLETIN)

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Col. Frank Howley, U. S. military commandant of Berlin, asserted today that the United States is completely finished with making concessions to the Russians.

Howley stressed that this marks a complete change in American policy.

Early in the occupation, he said, the U. S. was distinctly oriented toward any "appeasement" necessary for amicable relationship.

Policy Is Futile
But, he added, the U. S. now realizes the futility of such a policy.

Col. Howley said the people of Berlin now are "firmly committed" to the western democracies and will endure any privations caused by the blockade this winter to enable them to remain in the city.

He accused the Soviets of plundering Berlin and the entire eastern zone of Germany and of seeking a stranglehold on every phase of German life.

Soviet Position Deteriorates
Howley continued:

"But the position of the Soviets—and not the United States—has deteriorated since the blockade began. The Russians gambled on a western economic collapse in Berlin within a week, but we were able to hold on through our foresight in building up reserves.

"Russian tactics have forced the Berliners to appreciate the differences between east and west and they are determined not to allow themselves to be enslaved or become subjugated by a one-party system."

Col. Howley said he discounts the value of four-power conferences "because the Russians are out for what they can get by whatever means possible."

Pa Newc Observes

Leaf burning season is again approaching. In fact it is already here on some premises. Leaves are beginning to fall in large numbers from some varieties of trees.

Motorists heading north on Sampson street must still make the short turn at the corner of Sampson and Grant streets. The work of installing a radius curve at the intersection is completed with the exception of the removal of the old curbing at the corner and blacktopping the new portion of the street.

Only about 12 more days of fast time remain for city and county folks who have been operating on the daylight savings schedule. Court House and transportation terminal clocks will not need to be reset as they have carried the old time all summer long.

With weather rather warm for indoor studies on Monday, pupils of many of the classes in city schools were permitted to indulge in outdoor sports during the afternoon hours. Football and volleyball were some of the sports engaged in by the eager pupils.

Pa Newc went skimming over the newly paved road known as the King's Chapel-Pulaski road last night, and is here to report that the state highway force has done

Confident Russia Still Lacks Atomic Weapons

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Sen. Hickenlooper (R) Iowa, chairman of the congressional atomic energy committee, said today he is confident that Russia still lacks atomic weapons.

In Washington after a tour of three major atomic establishments, Hickenlooper declared that the United States still holds its "pre-eminence" in the nuclear field and retains "exclusive" ownership of bombs. He said:

"Without doubt the United States still is maintaining its pre-eminence in the atomic field.

"I believe we are the exclusive possessors of atomic weapons."

Hickenlooper indicated that he believes that no other country has (Continued on Page Two)

Community In California Is Fire Threatened

OJAI, Calif., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Evacuation of 3,500 inhabitants of Ojai began today as a raging brush fire threatened the second wholesale destruction of the Ventura county community.

Residents of nearby Miner's Oak also were ordered to leave their homes.

All able-bodied men were ordered out to fight the blaze and trucks and automobiles were commandeered to move the residents of Ojai out of the path of the fire.

Only the two-block business section appeared safe from the flames.

Ojai, north of Los Angeles, was wiped out by a similar fire in 1917. Flames were racing through tree tops to reach the doomed houses on the community's outskirts.

The blaze started Sunday in Los Padres National Forest, six miles north of Ojai. It already has blackened more than 10,000 acres.

Mystery Man Is Being Sought As Probe Witness

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The House Un-American Activities committee today sought a mysterious witness who may have been linked with the Soviet atom spy ring in Canada.

The committee pressed a search for an "Arthur Adams," whom it described as "one of the most important Soviet agents." Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., committee chairman, said "his assignment was the procuring of atomic and radar secrets."

Committee sources expressed the belief that Adams might have been a link between the Russian spy ring in Canada and a similar group or groups in the United States which sought the secret of the atomic bomb.

May Unearth Link
If so, it will be the first link with the sensational Canadian spy case that has officially been unearthed. The Canadian government reported in 1946 after an exhaustive investigation that Russian agents

Republicans Far Ahead In Election In Maine

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Maine Republicans in the first election of this Presidential year snowed under Democratic opponents and sent to the national Senate the first woman ever to be elected to that office from Maine.

Democratic candidates for various state and national offices were buried under a landslide of voters in yesterday's election.

The new woman senator, silver-haired, 49-year-old Congresswoman Margaret Chase Smith in nearly complete returns today received 63,811 votes to 22,143 given Dr. Adrian H. Scollen, native of Prairie View, Kan., and a newcomer into Maine politics.

Class Members Get New Type Training

Above is shown one of the Agricultural Education classes at Union high school receiving down to earth knowledge about beans in one of the huge bean fields of W. H. Weinschenk farm on the Savannah road.

Necessity has long been known as the Mother of Invention. At Union high school, necessity has changed the curriculum of the newly organized Agricultural Education classes.

Material for instructing the classes is not available as yet, so on the suggestion of J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of Union, Moreland Thompson, the "Ag" teacher, has substituted "on the farm" demonstrations for his pupils. The boys are taken to successful farms in the county and shown how that farmer has succeeded.

At the W. H. Weinschenk and Sons greenhouses, where one demonstration was arranged, the boys found that help was lacking in harvesting the bean crop. There the "Ag" students decided to make their studies more practical and pitched in to help. While picking beans they found that the best string bean for market was the "Black Valentine." They were also informed why. The best methods for picking and handling for market was described. Weight per bushel was given them as 36 to 37 pounds.

The classes have proved very practical and in return for the help rendered the class is given farm produce which in turn is given to worthy institutions.

To Resurface Butler Road East Of City

Workmen will start on Thursday to resurface the highway and will begin at Willow Brook, just east of the city line, continuing through to Rose Point.

The resurfacing will not be done to the entire highway between the two points, but only in those places where rough pavement exists. Some places a mile in length will be covered with a binder course to be followed up with the surface material.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The western powers made a new attempt to break the diplomatic log-jam on Italy's African colonies today but again met Soviet opposition.

By JOHN E. LEE (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The "last-minute" four-power conference on Italy's African colonies appeared headed for complete failure today.

Under the terms of the Italian peace treaty, September 15—tomorrow—has been set as the deadline for a Big Four accord. Should no agreement be forthcoming, the issue will be referred to the United Nations' General Assembly, which meets in Paris on September 21.

Primary Vote Being Cast In Massachusetts

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—A half million Massachusetts voters will go to the polls today to elect 1,400 candidates to federal, state and county offices in preparation for the November election.

The Republican ticket was almost completely determined even before the first vote was cast. Lt. Gov. Arthur W. Coolidge, Atty. Gen. Clarence A. Barnes, U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall, Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook and State Treasurer Laurence Curtis were all unopposed for re-election.

Governor Robert F. Bradford (R) faces State Senator Edward M. Rowe of Cambridge as his primary opponent. Political observers feel the Governor is certain to win, but they will watch the size of the vote Rowe polls against him.

Four Republicans are contesting for the right to oppose State Auditor Thomas J. Buckley, a Democrat, in the November elections. They are Mayor Edwin L. Glander, Jr., of Northampton; Douglas Lawson, and Wallace Stearns, both of Boston, and former State Auditor Russell A. Wood of Cambridge.

Paul A. Dever is unopposed for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, and Buckley is unopposed for the auditor's post. There will be contests, however, for all other offices on the ticket.

Special Session Of Parliament Opens In London

By TALBOT HOOD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—King George VI today opened a special session of parliament which will consider a labor move to curtail the power of the House of Lords.

The king, in a brief address, told the parliament that they had been summoned to consider a bill reducing the delaying power of the Lords—dominated by Britain's hereditary aristocracy—from two years to one.

Short Ceremony
The ceremony was the shortest on record, lasting only four minutes from the time the king and queen entered until their departure.

The royal couple's appearance drew cheering crowds along their route from Buckingham Palace to the House of Lords. Household cavalry, in full dress uniforms, escorted the royal coach in which they ride, last used during Princess Elizabeth's wedding.

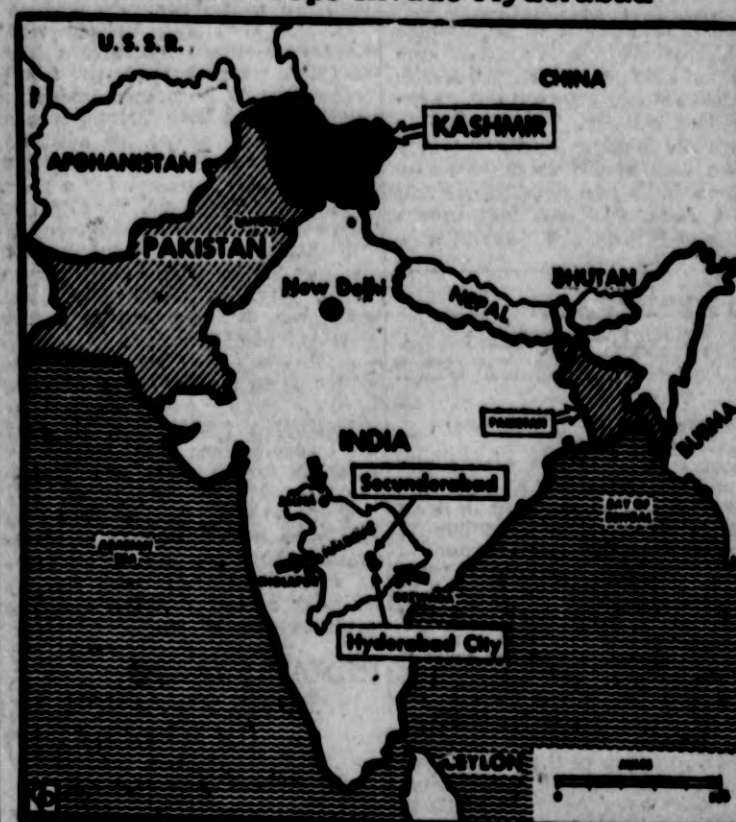

Labor's desire to nationalize the steel industry is the main reason for the move to abridge the lords' functions. The House of Lords, under present laws, can delay such a move for two years—or until an (Continued on Page Two)

Possibility U. N. May Get Berlin Dispute He Says

Declares Soviet Aim In Berlin Is To Destroy Western Prestige

EFFORT FAILURE GEN. CLAY DECLARES

By OMER ANDERSON (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today that there is "no reason to believe war is around the corner or that war will be an instantaneous thing."

The American military governor declared that Russia's "minimum objective" in Berlin at present is the destruction of western prestige—and that the Soviets will go no further than this.

The four-star general, said that submission of the Berlin dispute to the United Nations was "a possibility."

Clay told a news conference: "Seek Peaceful Settlement
"U. S. policy in Berlin consists of an exhaustion of all possibilities for a peaceful settlement—the United Nations is one of those possibilities."

He said he did not think Russia is succeeding in its efforts to damage western prestige in Berlin.

Clay also left open the possibility that the current east-west negotiations will produce a settlement of the Berlin deadlock. He said the military "government" talks were suspended "by mutual agreement," to be resumed on call.

I know a spot, it's a wooded spot, where the trees are mostly tall, where quiet reigns over the song of the birds, and it looks like an ancient hall. The trees are so thick that the morning sun just filters its rays below, and the moon at night makes a silver line in the trees that resembles snow. The oak trees nod to the maples and gums, and the beeches chat with aspens, a peaceful spot the whole year round and just within easy reach. And when things get rugged and nerves grow tense, it is then that I hie away, to that spot in the woods where a fellow can think, it's seventy-four today.

Police Use Tear Gas At Scene Of Strike Melee

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14. — (INS) — Fighting in which police fired tear gas shells broke out today as hundreds of striking CIO oil workers tried to prevent non-striking employees from entering the Richmond Refinery of the Standard Oil Company.

Some of the tear gas shells, which failed to explode immediately were hurled back at the police.

Cameras were smashed from the hands of two newspaper photographers and one was smashed.

The fighting erupted at street intersections along the three-mile route from Mechanics hall in Richmond to the refinery as the non-striking workers moved toward the plant in an automobile convoy.

The non-striking workers were members of AFL unions and the Independent Union of Machinists.

resist aggression rather than permit the subjugation of nations through invasion.

Daily policy conferences are being held aboard ship and the general pattern laid down by President Truman and Secretary Marshall are being closely followed.

Expect Soviet Barage

Delegates said they expected a barrage of Soviet attacks and propaganda offenses against the western powers—particularly on the U. S. and Britain.

The Paris meeting will be largely a battleground for the east-west conflict. It has led the American, British, French and other western powers to a solid protective front.

While little hope is held for a solution to the east-west conflict, the American policy seeks to retain a constructive outlook and will refrain from deliberately inciting or fomenting further disagreements with the Soviet bloc.

Will Challenge Reds

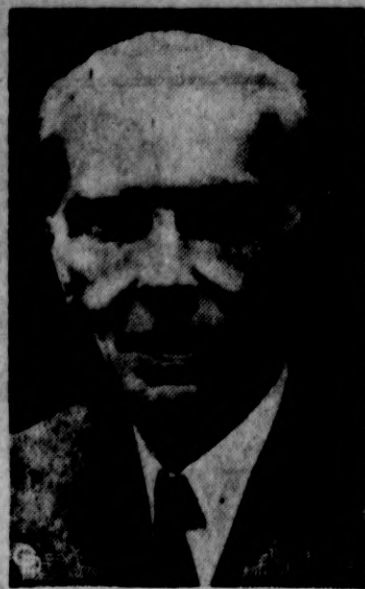

The vetoless atomic control and inspection plan rejected by Russia will be placed before the assembly for judgment, and all allegations by Russia that the U. S. and Britain sabotaged world disarmament will be challenged.

The United States policy is to back corrective measures to enable deserving nations to join U. N. in that connection, Israel will be supported in the new state's application for membership.

Simultaneously, with the work of repaving Route 422, surface material will be poured on the Mt. Workmen have been engaged in widening a portion of the highway, prior to pouring the blacktop surface.

powers had violated the Italian treaty.

Vishinsky, deputy foreign minister and "hatchet-man" of the Kremlin, asserted that Britain, and the U. S., by failing to send their foreign ministers to Paris, were guilty of treaty violations.

Perhaps of more interest than Vishinsky's expected wrangling, was the revelation of the positions taken by the four powers at the London meeting on the colonies which ended on August 21 in deadlock.

These recommendations will be brought before today's meeting by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, providing Vishinsky abandons his obstructionist tactics.

Main Points Disclosed

The main points of the London talks on Eritrea, Libya and Italian Somaliland, as disclosed yesterday, are as follows:

1. The U. S. and Britain want Cyrenaica—the northeastern part of Libya which borders the Mediterranean—to be placed under an authority, but with Britain as the administering power. In addition, they favor adjournment of the rest of the Libyan problem for a year.

2. Russia, however, wants all of Libya under Italian trusteeship.

3. All four delegations agreed to have Italian Somaliland placed under Italian trusteeship, but there was disagreement as to the duration of the period.

4. Russia favors placing Eritrea under Italian rule for a definite period.

5. Britain, however, would prefer to see Eritrea administered by Ethiopia for 10 years, after which the UN would decide its fate.

6. The United States feels that that area of Eritrea inhabited by Coptic Christians should be turned over to Ethiopia, with the remainder of the Eritrean question adjourned for a year.

INDIAN TROOPS PUSH ADVANCE ON HYDERABAD

The Indian troops to Rajasur, halfway to the garrison city of Secunderabad which protects Hyderabad City. Secunderabad is the immediate objective of the offensive in this area.

"Important objectives" were secured and the bridgeheads at Kur-nool and the Tunga Bhadra river on the southern border consolidated.

Capture Fortress Towns

In the northwestern area known as Aurangabad, the Indians captured the fortress town of Saulatabad and the important Jalna rail junction, a vital communications point controlling the entire general sector.

During the Sholapur-Hyderabad road advance, the so-called Barsi Enclave near the towns of Osmanabad and Yerrala was taken. This sector was guarded by large numbers of regular Hyderabad regular troops and Razakars (Moslem volunteers).

The Hyderabad forces surrendered their arms and ammunition. Twenty-five pound cannon were among the booty.

Attempts by Hyderabad troops to rescue strategic bridges across the Tunga Bhadra river, which forms the southern boundary between India and the Princely State, were said to have been repulsed.

In the northwest battle area, Indian forces claimed to be on the verge of taking Jalna, which would virtually seal off Hyderabad's northwest region.

The general said he did not envisage any change in U. S. troop strength in Germany, adding:

Troops Adequate

"I consider the number of troops we have in Germany now adequate to carry out their mission—which is to provide military security for the occupation."

Communist attempts to turn the Berlin population against the western powers, said Clay, had "failed miserably."

He said that the economy of the Soviet zone of Germany is "in a very bad shape" because the Russians apparently miscalculated their food reserves, which became exhausted two months ago.

To Expand Airlift

The general revealed plans to expand the capacity of the Berlin airlift 40 per cent so as to insure an average daily tonnage of 4500 tons, even during the worst winter weather.

The U. S. military governor asserted that America is yet to bring the airlift "anywhere near its maximum possibilities."

Asked about Soviet threats to hamper the airlift, Clay responded: "I don't pay any attention to them."

Clay said he had no intention of sending dependents of U. S. personnel in Berlin home because of anticipated winter hardships. He said there are less than 1100 U. S. citizens in the former German capital because of the transfer of many agencies to Frankfurt.

He declared there were no plans to reduce this number further.

Must Lift Blockade First

Clay said he considered it "unlikely that the Berlin situation will be referred to the council of foreign ministers without the blockade being lifted first."

He added, however, that such decisions were "on a governmental level."

Clay said that the airlift had thus boomeranged on the Russians and it demonstrated to the Germans and "the world at large" of the United States' "great technical ability."

Should current negotiations fail, said Clay, the airlift will be forced to continue "indefinitely."

Denies Report Of Differences

Clay denied reports that there had been differences of opinion between himself and various branches of the U. S. government on the handling of the German problem.

Questioned on this matter, the general responded firmly: "I am operating under the orders of the United States government. I assume that if the policies carried out in Germany did not meet with the government's approval, I would receive orders to change them—but I haven't."

He also denied charges that the creation of the west German state and the western currency reform had either split or "even furthered the splitting" of Germany.

The general said: "If we hadn't effected a currency reform in western Germany, the success of the European recovery program would have been very doubtful."

He said that German industry was showing the beneficial effects of the currency reform. Steel output has increased 100,000 tons in the last three months.

a good job on construction of this new stretch of highway. Use of the new route will shorten the improved road trip from New Castle to Pikesville by several miles.

Work on the contract for construction of the addition to the Walms school in Nesheonok township is being pushed. Foundation work and excavating are in progress at the present time.

Pa Newc discovered last night that State Police are engaged in making a check of auto drivers on the highways. Licenses to drive and ownership cards are being inspected as cars in traffic are stopped.

One of the spotlights used to illuminate the war memorial on the Court House lawn has been removed, Pa Newc discovers. Evidently the light was stolen by one of those "meanest thieves". The loss of the light darkens the memorial somewhat.

other general election gives the Conservatives the chance to make a comeback in the government.

Postpone Statement

Meanwhile, a statement of the foreign situation expected early in the session, was postponed for at least a week because of the critical stage of the current east-west negotiations on Berlin.

Herbert Morrison, lord president of the council, will act as deputy for Prime Minister Clement Attlee, who is ill. And opposition leader Winston Churchill has decided not to cut short his vacation in France to attend the early part of the session.

Acting for Churchill will be Anthony Eden, who is expected to open debate Wednesday with a statement of the world situation.

COLELLO-MICALETTI MORNING WEDDING

St. Vitus church, beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, was the scene of an impressive wedding Saturday morning, September 11. Miss Marge Colello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vito Colello, of 1509 Hamilton street, became the bride of Harry Micaletti, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Micaletti, of 2 West Lutton street, at an open church wedding solemnized at an 8 o'clock nuptial high mass. Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMito officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Helen Rosetti presided at the organ and also sang appropriate selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace with an overskirt of heavy white slipper satin. The gown was fashioned with a high neckline, a lace yoke and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt ended in a long train which was edged in baby seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a sweetheart crown of heavy satin like that of the gown and was caught at each side with baby seed pearls. She carried a satin covered prayer book with pearl rosary beads, gift of the groom, and a white orchid with streamers.

Miss Edith Chitprano, as maid of honor, wore a gown of white tulle with a sash of white tulle. She wore a sweetheart hat of peacock blue made of plumes which extended down to her waist and long mitts to match. She carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. As bridesmaids, the Misses Kate Elisco, Jean General, Mildred Felasco, Margaret Jannetti and Alvera Jannetti all wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's and wore hats and mitts of scarlet. They all carried cascade bouquets of American Beauty roses. All the attendants wore a single strand of pearls.

Carl Ciaella, Jr., served the groom as best man and Andrew Fahlies, Jr., Carmen Sheldone Thomas, Pegula, Edward Bullano and Nicholas Turko were ushers.

Following the congratulatory period at the church there was a breakfast followed by a dinner in the afternoon at The Castleton for the bridal party and the immediate families. The evening there was a reception for 500 guests in The Castleton ball room with music provided by a local orchestra.

The newlyweds left by train on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination and upon their return will reside for the present at the home of the groom's parents.

Mrs. Micaletti is a graduate of New Castle High school and is employed at the Shenango Pottery. Mr. Micaletti attended New Castle High school and served two years in the U. S. Army. He is now employed at the Johnson Bronze Co.

colorful appearance than he did in Lake Success.

To correspondents who knew him in the old days, his first appearance on Long Island was something of a disappointment.

And old-line Bolshevik of the rough-and-ready school, he had been expected to supply surprises and personal pyrotechnics that never did come. He is well on in years, but he also was in strange surroundings and all his actions inevitably had to be more or less a reflection of the East-West tension.

In Paris he may present a different aspect and so may some of the others. There is still something about the old city that exercises a psychological influence even upon the most case-hardened veterans.

Migrant Workers Aid Harvesting Of State Crops

Crop Harvest in Pennsylvania is Proceeding Normally
Says Report

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania crop harvest is proceeding normally today—thanks to the efforts of thousands of migrant agricultural workers.

The Pennsylvania State Employment Service reported "The supply of local workers has been augmented by a high number of migrant workers from the south and Atlantic seaboard states."

Heavy crop yields required many more workers than needed in past years, according to the PSES.

Truman Thompson, rural industry supervisor, explained that nearly 4,000 migrant laborers have answered the call of farmers for aid in the harvest period. In addition, 840 Puerto Rican laborers have been imported for the tomato harvest in east and southeastern counties, he said.

Schoolboys Aided
Thousands of schoolboys pitched in for their share of the work before the new school term began.

"We haven't received any complaints of a farm-labor shortage except in a few isolated cases," Thompson explained. "The situation appears to be under complete control."

The demand for harvest workers will show a "normal" increase during the coming weeks when late fall crops reach their peak, he said.

Farm wages are at a record high average of 60-85 cents an hour, according to Thompson. The top pay for common labor is paid in northwestern counties where workers receive 87½ cents an hour for harvesting fruits and vegetables.

Semi-skilled workers in the Northampton county alfalfa fields received wages as high as $1 per hour for combined field and processing work.

In addition to supplying workers for Pennsylvania farmers, the PSES has dispatched more than 3,000 farm laborers from the anthracite region for vegetable crop harvest in New York.

And, in combination work-recreation project, the service sent 1,200 children aged 14 to 18 to Vermont and Connecticut.

In conjunction with its job-replacement service, the PSES sent 1,200 youths aged 14 to 18 from southwestern Pennsylvania counties to Vermont and Connecticut for combination work-recreation camps, Thompson said.

Will Expresses Evils Of Wealth

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The "evil of wealth" have cost two Philadelphia youths a modest fortune.

The will of Miss Melaine Maddock, filed for probate yesterday, said that she had no bequests to her grandnephews because of her conviction "that a boy should make his own way in this world."

Miss Maddock's will said that "too many fine young men have been ruined by receiving property for which they never worked." The estate was valued at upwards of $25,000.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

table companions and said, "What do you say?" With one accord, they replied, "We will take the buffet dinner." "I told the waitress, 'All right, we will take the buffet dinner, but be sure and start us off with a shrimp cocktail.'"

The shrimp cocktail was produced and thereafter she brought in an extra large plate for each diner, each plate containing the following articles of food:

A large slice of rare roast beef. A large slice of very sweet baked ham.

Another equally large slice of white meat off some turkey. A generous helping of three different vegetables.

Appetizers Served

A side plate was also furnished each diner filled with such appetizers as stalks of celery filled with cheese, radishes, ripe olives and potato salad, and one or two other articles the names of which I don't remember.

There were several kinds of bread and one kind of butter.

For dessert we had our choice of what appeared on the menu—ice cream, sherbert, pies, French pastry and cakes. Some of us chose French pastry and ice cream and some chose sherbert alone.

We finished with splendid black coffee—decaffeinated or in individual urns.

All of the meat was the choicest that the market could afford, perfectly cooked and the vegetables likewise. There was not one of us that was capable of eating all of the meats contained on the plate.

The French pastry was all collected on one plate, the diner taking his choice the ice cream and sherbert most delicious and in very generous amounts. The coffee was exceptional and the shrimp of which the cocktails consisted was just such shrimp as you would expect to be served with at Antoine's in New Orleans. It was a feast for a gourmand. If we had ordered dinner separately from the menu, consisting of any of the meats, it would have cost not less than Five Dollars, to say nothing of the shrimp cocktail and the dessert.

Prices Revealed

In view of the prices charged by the butcher, the grocer, the baker and the candlestick maker, we were tempted to think that the proprietors of the hotel were interested in owning ranches furnishing the butchers with their wares as well as interested in the butcher shops and grocery shops of the town. We could not possibly figure out how such a meal could be served at the price charged. Where was any inflation suggested by the price of such a meal?

We were seated at the table at five-thirty and it was eight o'clock before we left that table. We were able to navigate, but not to engage in any athletic effort. We each of us were like stuffed sausages and we each subscribed to the statement—that meal ought to last us for a week at least.

Many citizens make the charge that everybody having anything to sell the public is making a tremendous profit out of inflation charges, but I fear that most of the inflation prices for food in such places of entertainment as the Waldorf-Astoria and the St. Regis, include in their prices much that is furnished by way of the hotel bars, but I will say that the only wet goods furnished on that occasion were water and coffee.

After we had finished at the table, we retired by way of the elevator. Our car was brought to us by the attendant who took our identification card that had been given us when we left the car and said: "There is no charge. You were in the hotel for dinner, were you not?" We replied, "Yes."

Seek Change In Ellwood Taxi Rates

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Public Utility Commission today announced Ellwood Taxi Co., of Ellwood City, has filed a new tariff proposing rate increases effective October 6.

The taxi firm proposes to increase the rate for service between points in the borough from 35 to 40 cents but would eliminate the additional charge for extra passengers, the PUC said.

WASHINGTON CALLING

western trip 'will be to convince the farmer that, like labor, he has nothing to gain and a lot to lose by a Republican victory. It is hoped that the small cloud of suspicion on the rural horizon can be blown into a major threat which will persuade farmers with a record crop that they must not change things in Washington.

All this, of course, is before the game has actually begun. The flush of hope may be due merely to the pep talk that the coaches are giving each other under the stadium before the whistle blows. In a single farm speech, Dewey may blow Democratic hopes for the rural vote sky high.

Asked for something more tangible, the Democratic planners point to the latest Gallup poll in Missouri the president's home state. This shows that the president's strength has risen to 53 per cent of those expressing an opinion, with 36 per cent for Dewey. If the undecided vote was distributed in the same proportion, Truman would have 59 per cent, Dewey 41. But the skeptics raise an eyebrow since, in 1944, when Dewey was running against the champ, he got 48½ per cent to 51½ for Roosevelt.

Industry's Future Problems In State Given Consideration

State Secretary Of Commerce Has Staff To Meet Problems, Keep Industries At High Pitch

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—State Secretary of Commerce Orus J. Matthews must keep in mind daily the industrial destinies of the ten million inhabitants of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Within the bounds of Pennsylvania, there are some 19,000 industrial plants, 5,000 mines and 170,000 farms—all of which consumed billions of dollars worth of goods each year.

Considering the amazing diversity of business and trade and occupations in the commonwealth, it seems incredible that any central guidance could be exercised over this industrial colossus.

His main job is two-fold—to maintain and expand, the industries already within Pennsylvania, and to encourage industries outside the state to move into the commonwealth.

Matthews has many talking points on his side. Pennsylvania leads the nation in steel production, turning out 30 per cent of the country's supply. It excels in coal mining, and shows the way in 50 other products ranging from nylon hosiery to chocolate.

He points out that the commonwealth possesses excellent transportation of all types, fine power resources and a location within 500 miles of the greatest market in the world.

With freight rates increasing steadily, the secretary tells prospective newcomers that a plant located in Pennsylvania assumes an ever-growing advantage over those placed in other parts of the country.

Pennsylvania advertises itself on a nation-wide basis, in leading magazines and newspapers.

Staff Studies Problems Matthews keeps a staff of field men on the go, working on the thousand-and-one varieties of problems that crop up in his department's far-flung domain.

One of the biggest problems, Matthews finds, is a tendency toward complacency among industrial men throughout the commonwealth, a tendency to assume that firms are going to stay in the state no matter what happens.

But he points out that each of the other 47 states is making a determined effort to lure industry out of Pennsylvania. Matthews remarks:

"Pennsylvania has more to offer industry than any other state, but we've been too modest about ourselves."

Conditions vary among communities in such matters as transportation facilities, numbers and skills of available workers, abundance and purity of water supply, taxes, utilization of existing buildings and other details which determine whether a new industry can locate there.

Matthews believes that the current pure streams programs will do much to attract outside industry to settle in a better and healthier Pennsylvania.

He also thinks that the housing situation is easing a bit and that although housing needs are still acute, that private enterprise will remedy the lack in shorter time than many people expect.

Private Enterprise Does Job In all improvements brought about in Philadelphia and elsewhere throughout Pennsylvania, Matthews insists that private enterprise can do the job without excessive government regulations or controls.

"I'm a great believer in freedom for the individual," he explains. "Freedom in where a man shall live and think and work and worship. I believe that private enterprise builds strength of character by allowing people to work out their own problems and their own destinies."

"Of course, we have to help the people here and there, by things such as stream clearance projects and the like, but we must not try to interfere in their private lives and wishes."

In 1643, Oliver Cromwell, "Protector" of England, was, in 1643, appointed one of a board of commissioners for the general management of all the English colonies in America. Other duties occupied most of his time at this period, however.

Devotion To Duty Pays Well For Pittsburgh Man

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Devotion to duty nearly 38 years ago while employed in the Pittsburgh Water Bureau has paid off thousands-fold for a Pittsburgh man.

He is Ben Anderson, 55, associate of the late E. V. Babcock, millionaire lumberman and former mayor who died recently leaving Anderson a one-twenty-fourth share of his estate, reputedly valued at about 10 million dollars.

Anderson began his career as a youth of 17 in the Pittsburgh Bureau of Construction in 1910. He passed up an appointment to West Point because his family needed his help.

It was while working there that he volunteered to do an emergency rush job when no one else could be found to do it, even though it meant working practically all night. So impressed was his superior, Joseph Armstrong, that when Armstrong became mayor he took young Anderson along as his secretary.

Later, when Babcock was named mayor he insisted that Anderson remain as his secretary, and still later when Babcock returned to private business, he took his hard-working secretary along with him.

Eventually Anderson became right-hand man to the lumber operator and director of Babcock's far-flung lumber interests.

Officials of the Babcock company in Pittsburgh have advised Anderson that first he must take a vacation—a week, a month, a year or as long as he wants. Then he may either retire or remain as an executive of the firm.

Anderson indicated that he may take a vacation of 10 days with his wife, but hasn't decided yet where he will go.

Designs Check For Use Of Blind

OMAHA, Neb., (INS)—An Omaha bank teller has designed a check for the use of blind people. Eugene Oglebay, paying teller at the Omaha National Bank, was so intrigued with what he learned about the activities of the blind that he decided to devise a check for them.

He consulted with A. J. Rhodes, assistant vice president of the bank; Lawrence Cooke, a rubber stamp maker; Irving Benolken, a printer, and members of the FBI. The result is a check with raised lines for the date, number, amount and payee's name and signature.

Two raised oblongs on the right are for thumb prints. The blind person puts his right thumb print in the upper oblong on all the blank checks. When he is ready to write a check, he places his thumb print in the lower oblong, and affixes his signature, or a facsimile thereof, over the signature line.

All blind customers of the bank will be provided with these special checks free of charge. They also will be given small rubber stamps bearing their facsimile signatures or printed names, and a special fingerprint ink pad.

Blind persons who can sign their names will be given similar checks, which will not have the fingerprint spaces.

Sen. Ferguson To Be Speaker

Michigan Senator To Share Program At McClure Bean Soup Rally

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Sen. Homer Ferguson (R) Mich., will be the drawing card at Pennsylvania Republicans favorite annual outing, the unique McClure Bean Soup Rally. He will be flanked on the speakers stand by GOP National Chairman Hugh Scott, of Philadelphia, Gov. James H. Duff and state fiscal candidates. Approximately 25,000 persons are expected to attend the outing Saturday at McClure. The rally lends zest to the party's political campaigning. It was inaugurated in 1891 by Civil War veterans. The public horned in on the feast, which included bean soup made from army recipes, and politicians finally took over the event. Sons of veterans now handle arrangements, selling the "delicacy" for 25 cents a plate.

There is feeling on the Milk Control Commission that litigation started by the City of Pittsburgh against minimum prices fixed for milk in the Pittsburgh marketing area is a publicity-seeking "bluff". It was predicted by an official of the commission that if the appeal from the price order is not argued in the Dauphin County Court "before November", the matter will be dropped quietly. This is an important election year, it was pointed out, and Pittsburgh is controlled by Democrats. The MCC is under the jurisdiction of the administration and hence is Republican in policy, despite the presence of a Democrat John J. Snyder as one of the three commissioners. Pittsburgh officials claimed to be representing consumers in their appeal against price hikes granted milk dealers. Snyder and Charles O'Laughlin have claimed to champion the "inarticulate" consumer by granting half the size or rate sought by dealers and producers. To keep prices down they teamed against Chairman H. N. Cobb, who favored authorizing larger price hikes.

The State Health Department's latest campaign is against accidents involving children. Approximately 950 youngsters die annually in Pennsylvania as the result of accidents, the department reports. The department's "mass education program" is being directed to parents and older members of families and emphasizes ways of eliminating practices that produce the largest number of child injuries. A life insurance company statistics revealed accidents were the leading cause of death among children over a year old.

The press policy of the Department of Forests and Waters leaves much to be desired by department employees. Secretary M. F. Draemel likes to make a grand distribution of news that he is willing to release, but clamps down on other items. As a result, news reporters must resort to indirect methods of obtaining information. When the dope comes out, "prematurely", certain of Draemel's subordinates automatically come in for an "ear-beating". Such was the case when someone unwittingly, but truthfully stated that September 22 was the date for launching officially dredging of the Schuylkill river. Draemel claimed it was a "premature" announcement.

The State Agriculture Department has persuaded the Pennsylvania Restaurant Association, headed by E. K. Birkett, of Norristown, to join the campaign to publicize Pennsylvania's $200,000,000 a year poultry and egg industry. Posters advertising patrons to "eat a better breakfast with eggs" soon will mushroom in restaurants throughout Pennsylvania.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains make you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be telling you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging headaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, backache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with burning or itching sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Scientists Gather For Discussions

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The American Association for the Advance of Science has opened a week-long meeting in Washington to celebrate its 100th anniversary.

More than six thousand scientists are expected to attend the meetings which officially got under way Monday night at Constitution Hall. The scientists who represent practically every field of research and experimentation have adopted as their keynote the thought of "One World of Science".

Officials promise that out of the welter of papers and reports will stem some amazing accounts of new discoveries in science.

Gov. Dewey Drafts Campaign Issues

Republican Standard Bearer Expected To Elect Same Theme As Harold Stassen

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey Monday polished and tailored final drafts of speeches he will deliver on his 7,000-mile transcontinental campaign tour beginning September 19.

The Republican presidential nominee has told intimates that President Truman's speeches before and since the Democratic National Convention have provided him with a well-defined set of campaign issues.

One big issue Dewey is said to be highly briefed on is the President's expected charge that the Republican-controlled Congress is responsible for high prices.

The GOP standard bearer is expected to elect the same theme taken by Harold E. Stassen in his speech last Thursday in countering Mr. Truman's allegation.

Stassen contended that much of the responsibility for inflation rested with the President and that heavy government spending was a major factor.

Dewey's schedule from the time of his 14-car special train rolls out of Albany September 19 until election eve calls for continuous campaigning except Sunday breathers.

The stocky New Yorker's campaign opens in Des Moines, Ia., where he will offer a broad blueprint of the GOP campaign covering both domestic and foreign issues. On the agenda for next week are stops in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon and Washington.

Dewey's first actual speaking stop will be at Rock Island, Ill. September 20, proceeding from there to Des Moines.

Police Officer Shoots Deer In Montgomery Co.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(INS)—A policeman's shotgun Monday ended the marauding career of a five-point, 150-pound buck deer which had terrorized residents of adjacent Montgomery county.

James Gregor, of the Cheltenham police, dispatched the animal as it stood outside the home of Samuel Stewart in Lamott. It's now hanging up outside the police station.

The deer is believed to be the one that attacked Miss Theresa Rowe, 22, near her home in Jarretstown Saturday. It charged the girl, knocked her to the ground and tried to trample her.

Other residents later reported glimpses of the five-pointer in various parts of the county. In Erlen, it was reported to have accepted bits of bread from children.

Industrial production was up nine per cent, originating shipments up 11 per cent, trade six per cent higher and gross department store sales 12 per cent higher.

Seek Increased Egg Production

Agriculture Department Wants
Poultrymen To Increase Flocks
By Four Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Agriculture Department Monday asked the nation's poultrymen to increase egg-producing flocks by four per cent as another weapon against the meat shortage.

The suggested national goal calls for 425 million hens and pullets on farms on next January 1.

This would mean retaining on farms a larger proportion of the summer flocks than in recent years—75 per cent of the number of farms August 1, compared with 71 per cent retained last year.

The department said that producers with this number of layers can expect to give consumers a least as many eggs per person in 1948, and to meet all non-civilian requirements. Last year consumers used 380 eggs apiece, compared with a pre-war average of 298.

Consumption this year is expected to equal 1947.

Council Acts To Condemn Lands

Certain Lands In First Ward
Are Being Taken Over
By City

OTHER NEWS OF
COUNCIL ACTION

City councilmen in formal meeting in City Hall Monday adopted an ordinance condemning and taking certain lands in the First Ward for the erection of buildings necessary for the maintenance and storage of materials and equipment used in the Street and Sewer Department and in the maintenance of other city property.

The lands are the property of the GNCA, Shenango Valley Railway company, Sharon Railway, Erie Land and Improvement company, J. Henry Kline, the Commissioners of Lawrence County and the city, with a right and equity of redemption in Joseph Love, Daniel Fix, Maggie Reynolds and Rufus and Hannah Henderson.

The ordinance provides for the assessment of costs and damages for the taking and condemning of the land for the settlement of such costs and damages where possible and for the payment thereof and for the compromise and settlement of claims for damages where such compromise and settlement can be made.

The section is in the Bridge, South, Lawrence street and Shenango river district.

MAKES COMPLAINT

Mrs. Arturo Graziani, Butler avenue, complained of damage done to her property by an auto several nights ago which she indicated came from the Florence Hotel property, Butler avenue.

During the discussion it was alleged that the hotel proprietors received a permit to construct a warehouse and instead enlarged their property to include a beer parlor.

Solicitor Robert White told council that if the permit was used for purposes other than it stated the permit could be revoked and the structure used only for what the zoning law calls for. Council authorized Solicitor White to investigate the matter and to take whatever steps are necessary for the fulfillment of the zoning law.

EXONERATE PROPERTY

Council exonerated the William Brast property, Section 12, Lot 400, of $140.30 taxes covering the 1931-1948 period.

Solicitor Robert White informed council that the plot—three acres—in the Sixth Ward is adjacent and a part of a much larger tract in Union township, the mansion being in Union township, which is taxable only in the township. For some reason, White stated, the property has been taxed by the city hence the tax has been exonerated.

SEEK LIGHT PERMIT

Solons through a resolution formally requested sanction of the State Highway Department to erect a traffic light at South Mill and Croton avenue which will operate on the same time period as the Grove and South Mill streets traffic signal.

AUTHORIZE CONTRACTS

Execution by the mayor of contracts between the city and Johnson Bronze company was authorized Monday by which the city gives up its rights in dedicated streets on Bronze company property and the Bronze company gives up their rights on Moravia road and land occupied by the P. and L. E. R. R.

RECEIVE STATE CHECKS

Council authorized the city to accept from the state a check for $7,748.80 and to place it in the liquid motor fuel fund and also several sums received from the county as the city's share in rents on properties in the city collected by the county.

MAY BUILD LINES

Council granted Monday permits to the M. L. and H. company to lay 3,270 feet of six-inch lines along Crescent avenue, Industrial street, Mahoning avenue to a point near the Elliott Steel company to supply gas to the plant. The company was also authorized to excavate east on Rose avenue and south on Cascade street for a four-inch line to a dwelling.

Daughter Of Late Washington Publisher Asks Court To Refuse Will To Probate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Countess Pelicia Gazyka, daughter of the late Mrs. Eleanor Medill Patterson, publisher of the Washington Times-Herald, on Monday asked U. S. District Court to refuse to admit her mother's will to probate.

The daughter contended in a caveat filed with the District of Columbia register of wills that her mother was not "of sound mind and memory" when the will was made. She further charged that "fraud and deceit" and "undue influence, duress and coercion" were used on her mother, and that the document was not in fact "the last will and testament" of Mrs. Patterson.

The countess, who gave her address as New York, asked the court to call for an answer to her charges from the "parties interested" and that a jury trial be held on "the facts surrounding the validity of the alleged will and codicils."

The will disposed of an estate estimated at 10 and one-half million dollars. Under the will Miss Gazyka was left most of Mrs. Patterson's personal effect, some real estate and a life income of $25,000 a year.

The Times-Herald was left to seven of its executives. The countess asked that the Riggs National Bank of Washington, which has been named collector of the estate, be continued in charge "pending the conclusion of this litigation."

There was no indication in the caveat that a substitute will would be presented. The daughter asked merely that the will now pending be refused probate and that her mother "be declared to have died intestate."

She listed herself as the "only daughter and sole heir at law and next of kin" of Mrs. Patterson. She said that her interests would be "injuriously affected" if the "alleged will" were allowed to go to probate.

WEARING A HAT

"I have always been under the impression that one wears a hat with street clothes, even when attending evening banquets held in public places. I feel that the only time one may correctly go bareheaded is while wearing formal evening clothes or dinner clothes. So many times lately, however, I have attended banquets in hotel ballrooms and have noticed that the women though attired in informal clothes wore no hats. I always feel that this type of costume lacks complete without a hat. Am I wrong in my attitude?"

Answer: It is rare, indeed to see a woman under 30 wearing a hat and the majority over 30 go bareheaded. It used to be grave social error for a woman to appear on the street without a hat and gloves.

Although I agree with you that street clothes seem incomplete without a hat, we must go along with the times and conform with all modern innovations.

At any such occasion as a hotel banquet, hats should be worn with street clothes.

Question: My husband and I are going away on a two-week vacation and we should like to send our future daughter-in-law some cards. Will you please tell me how we should sign them? How would I sign my name to a shower gift for her; would it be proper to sign it Mother and Dad, with out last name added?

Answer: Sign the cards "Mary and John Smith" and sign your name on the shower card—Mary Smith, not Mother and Dad.

Present your problems to Miss Markie who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Local Boys Home
From Coast Trip

Three local youths, Chuck Gee, Bill Carlson, and Don Bates, have returned after a six weeks vacation trip through the west.

The young men left August 1 with a new jeep and trailer, visiting Yellowstone Park, and many other points along the northern route. They turned their trailer over at the Nevada-California state line, where they abandoned it, and after visiting Lake Tahoe, went on to Pasadena, Calif., where they spent two weeks.

Don Bates drove the jeep back home by himself, making the trip in five days, whereas Gee and Carlson took two weeks to hitch-hike finally returning from Atlanta, Ga., by bus.

The trio expect to enter the service in the course of the next few weeks.

Bermuda Counting
Hurricane Damage

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Bermuda counted its damage toll from a violent hurricane today and first reports showed only minor losses. Adequate storm warnings and proper precautions in the face of the eight-hour storm last night prevented casualties. A half dozen small boats were sunk, most telephones were out, and a dozen stores lost part of their roofs. Many trees were uprooted. The weather bureau estimated that peak wind velocity reached 100 miles an hour, but with taxis and buses off the streets, and windows boarded up damage was slight.

SEARS BULLET DAMAGE

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The City of Pittsburgh today had a bill for "bullet damage." Mrs. Grace Locicero has asked the city to pay $80.00 damages to a sofa and three lamps in her home caused by police bullets. Police were chasing a prowler in the vicinity.

Warburg To See Giant B-36 Bomber On Air Force Day

Guests of Honor of Aircraft To Have Individual Operations
In Observance

MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Warburg will be included among several hundred American cities and towns which will get an opportunity to see the giant B-36 bomber on Air Force Day, September 18, marking the date when the Air Force became a co-equal member of the national military establishment.

Five Consolidated Vultee B-36 bombers from the Seventh Bomb Group of Strategic Air Command's Eighth Air Force, stationed at Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Tex., will participate in the parade.

The design gross weight of the B-36 is 276,000 pounds. It is 185 feet long, 140 feet wide, and 46 feet seven inches high—the approximate height of a four-story building. The plane carries a crew of 18, including four relief personnel. It was designed to carry 10,000 pounds of bombs, 10,000 miles, and can carry up to 72,000 pounds of bombs over shorter distances.

In recent tests a B-36 carried a "useful" load of bombs approximately 6,000 miles, and later took off on a flight at a gross weight exceeding 300,000 pounds and flew approximately 6,000 miles at an average air speed of more than 300 miles an hour.

Simultaneously with the flights of the five B-36 bombers, the greatest number of aircraft ever to participate in simultaneous individual operations on a world-wide basis, will fly long-range training missions on September 17 and 18 as a feature of the observance of Air Force Day. Object of the global cruise control mission is to inform the public dynamically of the vulnerability of entire country to long-distance strategic aircraft.

Pittsburgh will play host to a squadron of bombers. Planes taking off from Keflavik, Iceland, will arrive over the city around noon.

Legion Auxiliary Starts Membership Campaign For Year

National Goal Of Million Members Sought By Biggest Women's Organization

Membership strength of the American Legion Auxiliary has passed the 600,000 mark. Mrs. Dorothy Boyle, president of Perry S. Gaston Unit of the Auxiliary here announced today. She predicted that the 1949 enrollment, now beginning would exceed one million.

"Growth of the Auxiliary has been rapid since World War II," Mrs. Boyle said, "and we expect it to continue as more and more women of veterans' families recognize the value of belonging to the Legion's auxiliary organization. More women paid 1948 dues to the Auxiliary than to any women's organization in the world and many already have re-enrolled for 1949."

The Perry S. Gaston Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary has begun enrollment of its membership for 1949 under Mrs. Edna Hedlund's leadership. All wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members and of persons who died in war service or since discharge, as well as all women who themselves served in either World War are being invited into membership.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Sept. 14.—(INS)—A prominent 103-year-old Illinois woman "did a little quilting" Monday before receiving friends at her birthday party.

Mrs. Anna Ruby of Jacksonville became famous when she began earning her living making sunbonnets after her husband's death. Known as the "Sunbonnet Lady" throughout Central Illinois, she made as many as 300 bonnets a year.

Mrs. Ruby received an old age pension from the state but accepted only a small portion of the grant to which she was entitled until the cotton shortage during World War II, decreased her earnings.

January is usually the wettest month in the state of Idaho, and July and August are the driest.

On the Public Square

Around Hollywood

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14.—Cecil B. DeMille has cancelled plans to fly his stars—Hedy Lamarr and Vice Mature—over to the strife-torn Holy Land for filming of "Delilah," but he's doing the next best thing.

Although the actual shooting will take place in Hollywood, the scenic background is being filmed in North Africa—as near the Holy Land as the jeep-borne camera crew dared go.

DeMille, a veteran of Biblical movies such as the "Ten Commandments," "King of Kings," and "The Sign of the Cross" says the Book of Judges is not clear on why Delilah clipped Samson.

Leave It To Me

But the movie script has it this way: Samson, one of the conquered Danites, was going to marry a Philistine (to be played by Phyllis Calvert). During a seven-day wedding feast, he lost a bet.

While Samson was out snatching Philistine garments to pay it off, the bride's father married her off instead to the chief guest (Henry Wilcoxon). When Samson came back to claim his gal, the bride's father brought out his younger daughter and said, "Marry this one. She is much prettier."

Samson was upset and said stubbornly, "No, I want the other one." Who was the younger daughter he spurned? It was Delilah, says DeMille, although the Bible doesn't say.

Provides Motive
The reason DeMille ties in Delilah with the younger daughter is because it gives a motive for her later shearing Samson. The Bible fails to give one. But leave it to the movies.

The Bible says Delilah had a man do her Samson-shearing for her. But anybody knows Hedy Lamarr will look cuter with a scissors than a man. Pardon. Not scissors, but a razor.

Hunt Three Eskimo Women In Seattle

SEATTLE, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Two men who flew in from Dallas, Tex., were in Seattle on a frantic mission. The mission: To find three Eskimo women and fly them back to Dallas.

Pilot Lew Leach and his companion

Walter Stonebraker explained: "Our boss, L. L. Horne, president of an oil company, is the bettingest man in the Lone Star State."

Thursday, he bet another Texas millionaire $20,000 that he could have three Eskimo women in Dallas by next Thursday.

"So, Horne told us, 'Expense is no object. Just don't come back without those Eskimos.'"

The Texas pair offered a reward when a hasty search of Seattle failed to find three Eskimo women willing to fly to Texas. If found, the women will be offered $500 apiece and promised return within a week.

Meantime, the Seattle Port of Embarkation reported location of three Eskimo women at least willing to listen to the Texans. But the port reported:

William L. Powers Of Youngstown Vindicator
Speaks On Russian
Attitude

EXPERIENCES IN ARMY ARE TOLD

William L. Powers, managing editor of the Youngstown Vindicator, who spent four years in service during the late war, a number of months of which were with the U. S. Army of Occupation in France and Germany, told of his observations there relative to the Russian attitude toward the United States in a talk before the New Castle Rotary Club, Monday noon.

Mr. Powers had a splendid chance to observe the Russians and Germans, as he came out of the war a lieutenant colonel and had dealings not only with the German people, but with the Russian Army as well.

He expressed the hope that the United States can succeed in keeping its head up in the present crisis brought on by Russia's unfriendly attitude and that war will not come again, particularly to this country. It is the civilian's who suffer most during war, he stated, and all of Europe experienced hardships which would have had to be seen to be believed.

He traced the experiences the German people went through following World War I when Germany was believed to have been stripped of all means to again wage war and of how the country had fared under the Weimar Republic, the Nazis and under today's government which is only on the level of a state. Germany, with over seventy millions of people is virtually without a government, he stated. They depend on the United States to enforce the law, having no national guard, army, or adequate police force.

Depends On U. S.
What happens now in Germany depends on the United States, he said. He told of the difficulties experienced in dealing with the Russian Army as soon as the war had ended. Although Russia asked for reciprocal measures in dealing with conditions, the Americans soon found that it was a one-sided agreement with Russia always wanting the better of it and that Russia failed to live up to her conditions.

Sometime in the near future, he stated, Germany is going to be called upon to make a choice between the east and the west and she cannot be blamed if she picks the one which she thinks will be there the longest. She is going to see if we mean what we say about bringing Democracy to Germany. If not, she is going to come under a dictatorship as powerful, and certainly more skilled than the Nazis were.

What might happen, he stated in conclusion, "is one of three things that Russia might bring about a new deal as happened in America but this seems quite remote, or that we will see a collapse of the Russian dictatorship or that conditions will gradually cause us to drift into another war."

Halt Payment Of Insurance By ECA

Exporters Must Pay Own Shipping
Insurance On Items Shipped
Under Marshall Plan

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Economic Cooperation Administration announced Monday that it is halting the practice of making insurance payments on Marshall plan shipments.

In the future, ECA Administrator Hoffman said insurance costs will have to be borne by the exporter or importer of the particular recovery item.

Hoffman termed the move another effort to "emphasize private trade practices in ECA operations". Hoffman said the new policy is based on the belief "that such ECA funds as might be required for insurance premiums could better be used for projects more closely related to the ECA objective of recovery in the participating nations."

Columbus Firemen Sprayed By 'Pop'

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Columbus firemen rinsed pink "pop" out of their uniforms Monday as the result of a spectacular, $300,000 three-alarm fire that destroyed a building which housed the Brooks Bottling Co. and the Comco Manufacturing Co.

Smoke poured hundreds of feet in the air and the explosion of soft drink bottles sounded like a small-arms raid above the rear of flames that leaped 50 feet over the cement block building Sunday afternoon.

'Lone' Operator Ends Job After Twenty-One Years

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Mrs. Earl Peterman can now go back to her baking and housekeeping undisturbed.

Since 1927 Mrs. Peterman has been the only paid operator of the Lumber City Telephone Co., near Clearfield. The company, with 13 subscribers in Lumber City and four in nearby Kermoor is calling it quits with the permission of the commonwealth on September 23.

It seems the company has been operating on a margin of something less than $6 per month. Mrs. Peterman's salary of $1 a day had taken most of the $35 a month income.

And what with the old type wall box phones wearing out, the company could no longer afford repairs or replacements.

However, there was a time when the lumber business boomed in Lumber City and the company had 50 subscribers, and Mrs. Peterman with the switchboard right in her living room was kept quite busy.

She made many friends, but it was work, too, running from the oven to the switchboard and back to the oven before the cake burned.

Mrs. Peterman said she raised seven children around the switchboard, and they all took turns helping operate it.

But come September 23, the Lumber City Telephone company will accept its last call and will "ring off" for good for the first time since 1902, when it started operation.

One lady said a few days ago that she used to be afraid to go to bed at night. She was swollen with stomach gas, which always got worse when she went to bed, and the gas would rise up in her throat after she lay down and would nearly choke her. She couldn't lie flat. Had to prop herself up on pillows. Recently this lady got INNER-AID and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly.

Blame Moscow For Rumors Of Troop Removal In Japan

Japanese Communist Party And Other Left Wingers Press Independence Campaign

TOKYO, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The suspicion was voiced by American observers in Tokyo Monday that Moscow inspired a new leftist propaganda drive for an early peace treaty and withdrawal of occupation troops from Japan.

Russian officials in Japan were silent on the subject. But the Japanese Communist party and other left-wing organizations pressed the so-called "independence" campaign.

It was launched September 1st when the Communist party's official newspaper Akahata ("Red Flag") printed in a nine-point peace plan a day after it reportedly appeared in Moscow's Pravda, organ of the Russian Communist party.

The plan calls for an immediate Allied-Japanese peace pact to be followed promptly by the withdrawal of occupation troops. It demands a treaty that would leave Japan with what it calls "full independence."

The Communist plan opposes what it terms the "conversion of Japan into a military base."

Two days ago the Japanese League for the Protection of Democracy repeated virtually the same plan in appeals sent to the Allied Far East Commission and to Progressive party presidential candidate Henry Wallace.

The league's sponsors include the Japanese Communist party and many labor unions.

U.S. Fine Fighting Won World War II

Navy Secretary Asserts That Fighting Strength Was Secret Weapon Of U.S.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 14.—(INS)—Navy Secretary Sullivan asserted Monday that America won World War II because it had the world's best fighters—"not sonar, radar nor even the atomic bomb."

Sullivan declared that they were America's "secret weapon."

The Navy secretary told the 33rd Bi-annual Convention of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers:

"God has given us not only our natural resources and wealth, the finest type of government known to man, but he has also given us a secret weapon which is the greatest national asset any country has ever possessed."

"The secret weapon with which America won World War II was not sonar, radar nor even the atomic bomb. The secret weapon with which we won that war was 15 million of the finest young men this world has ever known."

Sullivan said that "They were the best fighters . . . because free men fighting for freedom can never be beaten."

Successful Six Years At Wesley For Rev. Alej

With the announcement that Rev. Paul Alej, pastor of Wesley Methodist church, has been transferred from the pastorate of the West Side church to that of the Savannah Methodist church, it is reported that the church has gained materially and spiritually since his six year ministry.

Rev. Alej was formerly pastor of the Pulaski, King's Chapel and Wesley churches and at the 1947 Erie conference was assigned to Wesley church alone. Two years ago a building program was established under the departing pastor's instigation. During that time, ground for the new church was purchased and work on a new parsonage was begun.

Rev. Everett Spring, the newly appointed pastor of the church, formerly served at Edenburg during his schooling. He will devote full time to the Wesley church and continue with the church building program which is under way.

Concerted efforts are being made by the Wesley church to have the parsonage completed for occupancy by the new pastor in the very near future. Prior to the plans for the new church, it had been decided to renovate the old church, but due to the expense involved, the decision was reached to build the new structure.

Annexation Of Portion Of North Mercer St. Asked

When council convened in City Hall Monday a petition was presented, signed it was indicated, by three-fifths of the property-owners in North Mercer street between a point midway between Euclid and Sheridan avenues, and Englewood avenues. The petition asked for annexation of such properties, now in Neshaunock township, to the city of New Castle.

The distance involved is 4,300 feet. The petition was referred to the legal department for checking with the understanding that if additional property-owners desire to sign for the proposed annexation they may do so.

The properties involved, it was indicated, represent more than three-fifths of the properties in interest and number as required by law. They lay east of the center line of North Mercer street.

After the petition is approved an ordinance calling for annexation will be presented, council indicated.

Bird Killing Flights Explained By Curator

By LEE S. CRANDALL
General Curator of the New York Zoological Society, Sept. 14.—Migratory birds such as those found dead Saturday in New York and other points in the United States lose their sense of direction and become confused when they encounter fog.

All we can say is that those birds got up in the air in clear weather and keep on flying, urged on by an unexplained migratory instinct. When they got up in flight, undoubtedly it was clear. We believe they came from northeast of New York, probably from Eastern Massachusetts or Connecticut.

The Weather Bureau said that fog covered the entire Hudson valley, the route they would have taken on their flight toward warmer climates in the south. Their exact destination, of course, cannot be determined.

Keep Going Until Daylight
When the birds fly at night, they just keep going until daylight. When fog sweeps in they lose their direction, but they still fly on.

Then if they encounter the lights of a building, beacon or tower, they undoubtedly think it is daylight and fly on toward the light. Studies have shown that they fly right into lighted windows or towers and smash their bodies against them.

But there is another factor concerning the fog. Even though a bird does not hit anything, in its confusion it drops wherever it might be—completely lost.

We can't say what this migratory influence to keep on course is, or why they lose it—they just do.

Fly Toward Light
The fact that they fly toward light can account perhaps, for the death of the birds in Nashville. They probably just flew into the beacon light, although we have no definite report of their being killed by the intense heat. Both factors could be involved.

Twenty-six dead birds and seven live ones were brought to the zoo. There are 12 species, all of them warblers but one. Three of them were Red Eyed Vireos.

Very rare specimens were the Cape May Warbler and one Tennessee Warbler.

The others we examined included: Oven Bird, Northern Waterthrush, Chestnut Throated Warbler, Bay Breasted Warbler, Magnolia, Northern Yellowthroat, Black and White Warbler, American Red Star and Canada Warbler.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

PRICE OF MILK
Editor New Castle News,
New Castle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

There is a controversy, at the present time, over the price of milk. Consumers think that the price is too high and the producers think that it should be higher. Very few of the consumers know anything about the cost of production and the distribution of milk. They believe the propaganda of the people who are interested in getting lower prices and are not in a position to learn the true facts.

It has been stated that cows are enjoying lush pasture, but the reverse is true at the present time. On our farm we are feeding all the hay that the cows will eat in order to prolong the pasture period.

The mid-western farmers have been credited with making a lot of money. That may be true, but if they have they made it from cattle, hogs and grain and not from dairies.

There has been a small drop in the price of feed but it is still selling at more than eighty dollars a ton. Feed is only a part of the expense of dairying. There is no reduction in the cost of labor. Farm equipment of all kinds and repairs on trucks and machinery is costing from two to three times as much as it did before the war.

If farmers did not work about twice 40 hours a week they would not be able to keep ahead of the sheriff. The producers only realize about 11 cents a quart of the 23 cents which the consumers pay for milk. Would it be possible to get the employees, of the distributors, to take a cut in wages? My answer would be no.

There is no question but that the union organizations and the O.P.A. are responsible for the high cost of living as well as manufactured articles.

I think that the Milk Control Commission knows more about the real situation than the consumers who are opposing them.

They realize that if the milk supply is to be maintained it will be necessary to favor a fair remuneration to the producer.

Farmers cannot compete successfully with industry for labor. They cannot pay the price demanded for wages at the present prices of most farm products.

The price of milk does seem high but when we take into consideration its food value in comparison with other foods it may be cheaper than some items that do not cost so much.

You just know it's a Packard!

There's a story of exclusive values behind these exclusive lines. Come in—see for yourself!

When you point to this proud, glistening grille, any schoolboy can tell you it's a Packard... the car that still looks like itself!

That's because the Packard radiator grille, for nearly 50 years, has been a trademark of precision-built character.

Packard, for example, has always meant precision-built engines. And Packard today is winning new fame with the amazing economy of its new "free-breathing" straight eights, in three power ranges.

Packard has always meant masterful road-ability. And Packard leads again today—with a "self-controlling" suspension system.

Packard has always meant precision workmanship. And today's Packards are the finest-built Packards ever to bear the name!

It all adds up to a story we'd like to tell you in full... and soon!

Marriage Plans For Hitchcock Are Becoming Tangled

DAYTONA, Beach, Fla., Sept. 14.—(INS)—Plans for Francis Hitchcock's marriage to a poor coal miner's daughter were tangled today by a counter divorce action filed by the wealthy New Yorker's second wife.

Hitchcock and his intended bride, Stephanie Sala of Windber, Pa., who are staying in Daytona Beach, continued nevertheless with preparations for the wedding ceremony on "Wednesday or Thursday."

The socialite Hitchcock and his pretty 23-year-old Cinderella fiancée obtained a marriage license last week from Judge E. W. Johnson of Bunnell. The jurist said the New Yorker told him he was legally free to marry.

However, West Palm Beach court officials expressed the opinion privately that the license was not valid.

Hitchcock filed suit for divorce in the Florida resort last April against Marie Grammer Hitchcock, who entered a counter motion. A circuit court clerk added to the muddled situation by saying that as a result no divorce decree has been issued.

The counter motion must be disposed of and the decree signed before Hitchcock legally can obtain a license to wed.

The couple still remained in seclusion at the seaside home of Col. Arch Wall, a friend of the 38-year-old New Yorker.

The child, about 2 1/2 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Donegan, North Mercer street, had returned to the car, which had been parked, and in some manner got it moving.

Teachers' Wage
Increase Drive
Starts In State

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Education association today formally launched a new drive to increase teachers' wages in the state an average 10 per cent.

In a voluminous report covering teachers' salaries in all Pennsylvania school districts the PSEA disclosed that the average wage paid the commonwealth's 59,000 school teachers and administrative personnel is $2458. For classroom teachers alone the average wage amounted to $2422, according to the report.

An analysis of teachers' salaries shows that "the financial outlook for the teacher in our Pennsylvania schools is not bright," the PSEA stated.

Seek 10 Per Cent Boost

"Although the average salary has increased from $1509 in 1940 to $2458 in 1948, the increase has been more than absorbed by increases in the cost of living," it pointed out. "In 1940, $1509 bought $1509 worth of goods. In 1948, $2458 bought only $1366 worth of goods."

The teachers' organization called for an average wage of $2717 to meet rising living costs, an approximate 10 per cent boost over what was paid to be the present median level.

"It is small consolation to be told that one is receiving more of the necessities of living than dollars than ever before when the sum total of these dollars buys less a former much lower salary," the association asserted.

The PSEA report can be expected to spark a well-organized campaign for higher wages in the General Assembly shortly after it convenes in January.

But Pittsburgh is pennant mad because of the surprising Pirates, and hundreds of applications have poured into the ball team's business office.

Teachers' Wage
Increase Drive
Starts In State

HARRISBURG, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Education association today formally launched a new drive to increase teachers' wages in the state an average 10 per cent.

In a voluminous report covering teachers' salaries in all Pennsylvania school districts the PSEA disclosed that the average wage paid the commonwealth's 59,000 school teachers and administrative personnel is $2458. For classroom teachers alone the average wage amounted to $2422, according to the report.

An analysis of teachers' salaries shows that "the financial outlook for the teacher in our Pennsylvania schools is not bright," the PSEA stated.

Seek 10 Per Cent Boost

"Although the average salary has increased from $1509 in 1940 to $2458 in 1948, the increase has been more than absorbed by increases in the cost of living," it pointed out. "In 1940, $1509 bought $1509 worth of goods. In 1948, $2458 bought only $1366 worth of goods."

The teachers' organization called for an average wage of $2717 to meet rising living costs, an approximate 10 per cent boost over what was paid to be the present median level.

"It is small consolation to be told that one is receiving more of the necessities of living than dollars than ever before when the sum total of these dollars buys less a former much lower salary," the association asserted.

The PSEA report can be expected to spark a well-organized campaign for higher wages in the General Assembly shortly after it convenes in January.

PIRATE OFFICIALS RETURNING MONEY

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirate management, has begun the task of returning money sent in for World Series tickets, and even used newspaper and radio advertisements to appeal to fans not to apply for tickets.

Until Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler's office grants permission, no team can sell World Series tickets—least of all a team three games out of first place.

But Pittsburgh is pennant mad because of the surprising Pirates, and hundreds of applications have poured into the ball team's business office.
